

Your inbox, handled by morning.

Concierge reads your inbox so you can run your business. One brief each morning. Nothing to learn.

Your inbox eats the part of the day you should spend on the work only you can do. Quotes go unanswered. Replies slip. The calendar fills without warning.

Set up for you

We set it up inside your own email and calendar. There is nothing to install, and nothing to learn.
- ii.

One morning brief

Everything that matters on a single page by morning. What needs you, what is coming up, what to chase.
- iii.

Nothing falls through

Follow ups, deadlines and replies are tracked. The thing you forgot is already on the brief.

HOW IT WORKS

- 1

We set it up

A short conversation about your business, then we connect it to your inbox and calendar.
- 2

It works quietly

Each morning it reads what came in and prepares your brief and your draft replies.
- 3

You stay in control

Nothing is ever sent without you. You glance, you approve, you carry on.

Discreet by design. It runs in your own accounts, your data stays yours, and it only ever drafts. You always hold the pen.
